

National Association of Federally Impacted Schools

Director of Policy & Advocacy

The National Association of Federally Impacted Schools (NAFIS) is seeking a Director of Policy & Advocacy to lead the organization's policy and regulatory work with Congress and the Administration; manage the organization's advocacy network; and cultivate the organization's relationships with key stakeholder organizations and coalitions.

The National Association of Federally Impacted Schools (NAFIS) is a dynamic and diverse nonprofit association of public school districts based in Washington, DC. For more than 40 years, NAFIS has been the leading organization focused on educating Congress on the importance of the Impact Aid program (Title VII of the Every Student Succeeds Act), which provides federal support to school districts in place of lost local revenues due to the presence of nontaxable federal properties, such as military installations, Native American reservations, or national parks.

NAFIS is a small, dynamic, and nimble organization with an engaged and active membership. Salary is commensurate with experience and qualifications. Competitive benefits include medical, dental, vision, life, and disability insurance; parking; and paid vacation and sick leave.

For the full job description, click here. Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and two writing samples by October 29, 2018, to HR@nafisd.org.

NAFIS is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, religion, sex, color, national origin, age, sexual orientation, or gender identity.