Executive Director

The National Association of Federally Impacted Schools (NAFIS) – a Washington D.C. based non-profit, non-partisan corporation of school districts throughout the United States organized primarily to educate Congress on the importance of the Impact Aid Program (Title VII of Public Law 114-95) – is seeking an outstanding leader with experience in the political arena and advocacy who has excellent communication abilities, strong management skills, and solid personal qualities to serve as Executive Director. The Executive Director is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the association and reports to the association’s board of directors.

Candidates with the following qualifications are encouraged to apply:

- a) At minimum a BA degree
- b) Knowledge and understanding of the U.S. Congress and the legislative process
- c) Experience in budget development and implementation
- d) A basic understanding of public school finance preferred
- e) Knowledge of the Impact Aid Program (Title VII of P.L. 114-95) preferred
- f) Experience working with a non-profit association preferred

The salary range is $160,000 to $200,000 annually, with a comprehensive benefit package and a three-year minimum contract. The final salary for the successful candidate will be negotiated and determined based on proven experience, qualifications, and meeting Board criteria.

The application deadline is January 31, 2022, with a start date of June 1, 2022. To apply, please electronically submit a letter of application, a resume including references, and three letters of recommendation via electronic mail to Dr. Sandra Doebert at NAFISApplicants@ccsd180.org.
